		*Italian AC forfeit of the championship game as too many players had flights to catch. Chicago/NY will play in the championship game vs DR. Game will start about 3pm and it will be live on www.ballparkradio.com Domican team refuses to play so the championship trophy goes to Chicago/New York by forfeit. Winship and Ellsworth received the awards. I will provide updates and additional information next time I get a decent internet connection, maybe Tuesday. Watch NEWS-2 for updates by blackberry. The AAU finals turned into disarray as the Dominican Republic team refused to play the championship game against Chicago/New York.

The Dominican Republic earned their berth in the championship game by defeating NY Gremlins 5-4 but even that was not without controversy.

A 6th inning 2-run home run by Sergio LaHoz was protested by NY Gremlins claiming the batter was touched by teammates coming from their first base dugout before the batted ball cleared the outfield fence. The protest was denied as all-3 umpires agreed the touching occurred after the ball cleared the fence. The home run moved Dominican Republic from a 1-run deficit into a 1-run lead and eventual final margin.

In the other semi final, Italian Athletic Club, defeated Chicago/New York 6-0 but due to flight departure times, had to forfeit the game and leave for the airport.

Dominican Republic refused to play the championship game, claiming they should play Italian Athletic Club and if IAC wasn't available, Dominican Republic should win the championship by forfeit.

The consensus of the tournament and umpire staffs was that IAC forfeited their 6-0 win and Chicago/New York was the legitimate entrant in the championship game. Dominican Republic refused to play and walked out of the park during the awards ceremony.

The official order of finish is:

Champs - Chicago/New York

2nd place - Dominican Republic

3rd place - NY Gremlins and Italian Athletic Club

Most Valuable Pitcher - Shaun Winship

Most Valuable Player - Jeff Ellsworth

	Consolation Champion - Nova Scotia
