SCOUTING REPORT

TOP 20 (12U) PLAYERS/PROSPECTS

1. Jai Smith 6'3 WF Carolina Elite (NC) -6th Grade (2021)

Long, agile athlete who displayed perimeter and post skills, an impact player defensively, good hands, soft touch, good footwork, can put it on the floor to create his own shot, passes well from the high post area, scores the ball in the paint with jump hooks and quick moves off the catch. With continued growth and development this young man could be special.

2. Jacory Wallace 6'1 C The Family (MI)- 6th Grade (2021)

Big physical post player who displayed very good low post techniques and footwork in the paint; really good agility for a kid his size at this age. Did a really good job of catching the ball in the paint and on the move while gathering himself quickly to finish for easy layups. Kid lived on the glass this week by gathering numerous rebounds on both ends; did really good job of keeping the ball high and outlet passed it out to guards for transition buckets...Showed some perimeter skills a step out and face game... Very interesting prospect moving forward.

3. Christian Winborne 5'8 G Baltimore Finest (MD) - 6th Grade (2021)

Good feel for the game and plays very poised and under control even in hostile situations...Shoots the ball well from outside off the dribble and off the catch. Can put the ball on the floor and elude his man with several ball-handling moves to get him open and to the rim...Plays through contact and is able to finish inside amongst larger players.

4. Ahmad Harrison 5'9 G Baltimore Finest (MD) - 6th Grade (2021)

A very long athletic lefty guard who plays with a chip on his shoulders. Has very long arms and uses his length to his advantage on both ends of the floor to get steals and deflections on defense. Attacks the rim with crafty dribble penetration and uses a very nice hesitation move often along the baseline to freeze defenders in the paint.

5. Patrick Baldwin 6'1 G Gametime (IL)- 6th Grade (2021)

Really smooth looking young player that should transition to a nice big guard in high school. Handles the ball really well for his size and has really good court vision in which he uses to makes some big time passes in transition and the half court. Can create his own shot right now off the bounce or from catch and shoot.

6. Anthony Sayles 5'8 G All In Athletics (IL) - 6th Grade (2021)

This was probably the most explosive scorer in the entire event. This kid will be one to keep your eye on over the next few years. He can flat out score from any level on the court. Has really good ball handling skills and has a very quick first step. He has really good size and strength which he uses very well to attack defenders off the dribble and get into the lane and score. He used his strength and size to challenge larger post players and even finish around the basket for layups. His first step is really quick and because of his ball handling abilities, he keeps defenders on their heels which open up several jump shot opportunities; Knocked down the 3-point shot with ease off the dribble. Has a good feel for the game and really knows how and when to score... Very good one on one offensive player!

7. Jadun Michael 6'3 F Team Felton (NC) -6th Grade (2021)

Skilled post player who is very long and active right now at this age; Could possibly be a SG on the next level...Runs the floor very well with good coordination and athleticism for a kid this size and age. Protects the rim on the defensive end by using his long arms and length to block and alter shots. Will flash to the high post and face up on post players looking to drive the ball from 15 feet to the basket. Solid offensive skills at this age but he is a rim runner who is looking to dunk the ball every time he catches it in transition or attacking the rim inside of 15 feet.

8. Malik Missouri 5'11, F Baltimore Finest (MD) - 6th Grade (2021)

Solid young post player who has a good feel and understanding of the game from the post position at this age. Did a good job of passing out of the post and can also put the ball on the floor and penetrate to the basket. Finished well at the rim in traffic and also rebounded the ball very well on both ends...Shows glimpses of a nice looking jump shot from 3-point range...May be a major asset in pick and pop situations because he seems to knock down the 3 ball with good consistency.

9. Travis Burrell, 5'9, G, Atlanta Celtics (GA) – 6th Grade (2021)

Smooth lefty who handles and dishes the ball well in pressure situations, scores using the dribble or can knock down the stationary shot, his instincts help him make the right play at the right time, shake and bake moves make him hard to guard off the dribble, 3 point range, his long arms make him a tough defender and Showed he could dribble/drive and kick it to the open man...Good looking young guard to keep an eye for the foreseeable future.

10. Chris Evans 5'11 F Philly Triple Threat (PA) - 6th Grade (2021)

Strong, athletic kid who played in constant attack mode all week...Puts a lot of pressure on the defense each play with his constant motion and attacking mindset. Showed a nice mid-range jump shot when he was not able to get to the rim. Decent ball handler who uses his straight line dribbles to get him into the lane where he seemed to love the contact and finish in traffic...Active kid on both ends of the floor. First to the floor type kid who found himself always getting loose balls, rebounded the ball well from his position because he just simply wants it more than anyone else on the floor...Really caused a lot of havoc with his on ball defense as well.

11. Devon Longstreet 6'0 F Atlanta Celtics (GA) - 6th Grade (2021)

High energy, high motor kid who plays very athletically on both ends of the floor...Has good size and above average length for his height in which he used to help him gather numerous rebounds on both ends of the floor this week. Showed that he could run the floor and finish in transition with both hands around the basket...Scored a few baskets in the half court bay facing up on his man from the free throw line and putting the ball on the floor and driving to the basket for easy finishes.

12. Micah Crowell 5'10 G Team Felton (NC) - 6th Grade (2021)

Solid guard who plays with a lot of poise and confidence...Looks to attack the basket off the dribble where he seems to have good control of the basketball and is comfortable finishing in traffic at the rim with both hands.

13. Trevor Keels 6'0 G/F Team Takeover (DC) – 6th Grade (2021)

Good size two-way player. He can play inside or outside at this level...Uses his size to overpower smaller players in the lane and off the dribble. Pulls out big post players on the perimeter where he uses his above average dribbling skills to get past defender off the dribble for easy scores. Finishes well at the rim with both hands and is a good defender in the paint and moves his feet well when defending smaller, quicker guards out front. Keels plays with a smooth demeanor. He doesn't let you speed him up, stays at his pace, has an old school feel to his game.

14. Christian Clover 5'10 G Philly Triple Threat (PA) - 6th Grade (2021)

Lefty guard that slashes to the basket and scores in bunches. Really crafty with the basketball off the dribble and uses his dribble to the rim and can finish with either hand in traffic...Natural scorer who can score from different levels...Knocks down open jumpers and 3-point shots with a really smooth shooting stroke.

15. Chase Cormier, 5'7, PG Atlanta Celtics (GA) -5th Grade (2022)

Small point guard with a good feel for the game and good court vision...Passes the basketball very well off the dribble. Keeps his head up at all times and is looking to create easy buckets for himself or his teammates

16. William Lane 4'10 PG Baltimore Finest (MD) - 6th Grade (2021)

Tough, hard-nosed point guard who plays with a chip on his shoulder...defends the ball very well on the defensive end of the floor by moving his feet and keeping his hands active...His strength is his crafty ball handling and quickness. He uses his dribble very well at this age and his crafty handles keeps defenders off balance at all times. Kid plays super hard and with no fear. Attacks the rim aggressively off the dribble and is looking for the contract when he gets into traffic. Gets to the free throw line a lot because of his crafty ball handling and pressure he puts on defenders with the dribble. Nice looking form on his shot.

17. Seth Wilson 5'11 CG King James Shooting Stars (OH) - 6th Grade (2021)

Good size combo guard who used his size and strength well to attack defenders off the dribble and get into the lane for easy baskets. Knocked down a few open 3's but his strength seems to be getting into the painted area and using his athletic ability to score in the lane.

18. Kino Lilly, Jr. 5'4 PG Team Takeover (DC) - 6th Grade (2021)

High IQ point guard that seems to have a really good feel for the game and how to play his position; Passes the ball exceptionally well for such a young player at the age level...High level of court vision and feel. Solid ball handler that keeps defensive players off balance and unsure of where or what he is going to do. Gets into the lane and creates scoring opportunities for himself and teammates when he draws the help.

19. Justin Hall 6'1 C Atlanta Celtics (GA)- 6th Grade (2021)

Thin, long, rangy kid at this level but does a good job of using his length to attack the basket from about 17 feet out. He blocked several shots on the defensive end by maintaining his balance and space in the painted area.

20. Reginald Tinsley 6'0 F Baltimore Supreme (MD) - 6th Grade (2021)

Big body post player who plays the game with a good level of physicality. He knows how to use his size and strength to create space in the low block area for easy scoring opportunities. His go too move on the block now seems to be a nice post up and turn over the left shoulder.

The Real AAU Basketball

BEST OF THE REST

(Players listed alphabetically)

Donald Bell 5'7 F Carolina Elite (NC)- 7th Grade (2020)

Good size and athleticism in which he uses well to get himself in the lane off the dribble to create for himself or others. Did a really good job of keeping his dribble alive and getting into the lane in which he was able to create offensive opportunities and also did a really good job of knocking down pull up jump shots off the dribble when the defense collapsed. Streaky outside shooter who can knock down a few 3's when he gets in rhythm and on a roll. Donald was instrumental in Carolina Elite capturing the 12U National Title.

Makye Boles 5'11 F Wellington Wolves (FL) - 6th Grade (2021)

Karell Booker, 5-2, 110, PG, Baltimore Finest (MD) – 7th Grade (2020)

Quick open court ball-handler; Tough; at his best penetrating; getting to the basket and scoring in traffic taking on the big guys...Plays relentless on both ends of the floor.

Avery Brown, 5-7, 128, SG, Gauchos (NY) – 6th Grade (2021)

Tough slashing guard; went strong to the basket and hit the pull up jumper; Major league scorer has the ability to put up points in a hurry.

Jainaz Cameron, 6'1, F, King James Shooting Stars (OH) – 6th Grade (2021)

Post player, good length and size, displayed good catch and finish ability, challenges shots at the rim, active rebounder, quick athlete end to end.

Noah Clifford W 6'2 F/C West Coast All-stars (CA) - 6th Grade (2021)

Very skilled, mobile big bodied post player who plays very well from the high post...Did a nice job of flashing to the high post and facing up on defenders. Drives well from the high post and does a good job of using solid footwork in and around the basket. Rebound the ball well on offensive glass and has a go to move on offense in which he turns over his left shoulder after making contact with the defender in the lane.

Christian Clover, 5-10, SG, Philly Triple Threat (PA) – 6th Grade (2021)

Smooth Lefty slasher who scores in bunches, kid really strokes the 3 pointer, and shifty moves off the dribble get him to the rim where he finishes with either hand, tough on the ball defender or a good rebounder from the wing position.

Noah Collins, 6-2, 180, F, West Coast All Stars (CA) – 6th Grade (2021)

Fundamentally sound big; showed a soft touch around the basket; Moves very well around the basket; Showed he could step out and hit the 12-15 foot jumper.

Darius Cooper 5'8 G/F Kansas Pray and Play (MO)- 6th Grade (2021)

big physical bodied kid who can handle the ball and make plays off the dribble...Created easy buckets off the dribble for him by using his dribble and body to get by defenders...Rebounded the ball well from different spots on the floor.

Matthew Cooper 5'0 PG Baltimore Supreme (MD)- 6th Grade (2021)

Really crafty little guard with the ball; Knows how to control his dribble and change speeds as well as direction with the ball in his hands to create easy lay ups...Uses his dribble well to create separation and space so that he can get by his defender.

Tyson Davis, 5'8, G/F, The Family (MI) – 6th Grade (2021)

Combo guard, athletic, good vision in transition, scores with the dribble or with the jump shot, very quick hands on defense, 3 point range, has a lot of swag with him, came up with big plays when his team needed them.

Troy D'Amico 5'8 F All In Athletics (IL)- 6th Grade (2021)

Very active forward who runs the floor well and uses his quickness to get past slower post players; Finished well around the rim and did a really good job of beating his man down the floor for easy baskets, and also attacking slower players off the dribble. Finished at the rim with both hands and can even handle the basketball away from the basket.

Raymond English 5'3 PG Baltimore Elite (MD) – 6th Grade (2021)

Very crafty ball handler who plays with great poise and control...Scores the basketball with ease and comfort using his dribble to get him to the rim or he will use his dribble to create space for a jump shot. Has a good feel and understanding of the game...Knows when to pass the ball and when to shoot.

Nathaniel Gordon 5'11 F Xclusive X6 (GA) - 6th Grade (2021)

Athletic perimeter player who possesses good ball handling skills, good court vision; 3 point range on his jump shot...Ability to play multiple positions at this level and has a good feel for the game...Finished at the rim strong and with both hands.

Jaden Hameed 5'7 G, King James Shooting Stars (OH) – 6th Grade (2021)

Big bodied guard who plays with a high level of energy and is always in attack mode; Plays very physical ...used his body and size well to attack defenders off the dribble. Pretty quick with the ball in his hand for his size and loves to play with contact.

Jaquan Harris, 5'9, 2/1G, NJ Bulldogs (NJ) – 6th Grade (2021)

Combo guard, this young man plays with great poise and control, he has great feel for the game and completely understands when to shoot or pass. He scores it with ease using the dribble to get to the rim or create space for his jump shot. He displayed great floor vision delivering the ball to the shooter on time and in rhythm, active on the glass from the guard position and a capable defender.

David Jackson, Jr. 5'3 PG Inland Force (CA) - 6th Grade (2021)

Solid point guard with good ball handling skills...Keeps his head up when dribbling and makes really good decisions with the ball in his hand. Good court vision and decision making at this age. Always seemed to make the right pass to open teammates and even stepped in and knocked down open shots when left unguarded.

Elijah Jackson 4'9 PG Cincinnati Royals (OH) - 6th Grade (2021)

Smart little point guard who did an excellent job of running his team and keeping things in order. Leader-coach on the floor type guard who seemed to know where everyone belongs and was vocal about getting guys into to position on both ends of the floor. Used his dribble well to elude defenders and was not rattled when teams tried to trap him and get the ball out of his hands. His leadership made the team go. Knocked down a few open jumpers but was content with getting teammates involved in the flow of the game for easy opportunities to score.

Justin Johnson, 6-2, C, Atlanta Celtics (GA) – 6th Grade (2021)

Long lean shot blocker and rebounder; need to get stronger; had problem playing physical down low...Developing youngster who is all arms and legs...Just scratching the surface of his potential.

Daylan Jones 5'7 F Kansa Pray and Play (MO) - 6th Grade (2021)

Really good player with the ball in his hands; He did a really good job of using his dribble to slash to the basket and attack the defense from the perimeter. Moved well without the basketball especially along the baseline where he seems to know how to get open for easy back door layups and scoring opportunities behind the defense. One to really watch develop over the years if he grows and his skills continue to improve.

Smart little point guard who runs his team and is a tough guard off the dribble. Kept defense off balance with solid ball handling skills and good court vision.

Pete Laidlaw, 6-1, F/C, Miami Top Risers 6th Grade (FL) – 6th Grade (2021)

Lefty big; runs the floor; love his size and frame; soft touch in the paint; hit the boards; defense is ahead of his offensive right now.

Samuel Larsen, 5'8 Team Takeover (MD/DC) – 6th Grade (2021)

Wing forward, smooth player, handles, shoots the three, and makes good decisions with the ball in transition and within the offense, good athlete, and capable defender.

Orlando Lovejoy, 5-5, 145, SG, The Family Black (MI) – 6th Grade (2021)

Drew Lutcher, 5-6, 145, PG, Nike Team Duke Pro Skills (TX) – 6th Grade (2021)

Solid all around guard; possesses an excellent feel for the game.

Rickey McGhee, 5-10, 154, G/F, Atlanta Celtics (GA) – 6th Grade (2021)

Long lean outside/inside player; possesses the wing skills and perimeter skills to be a interesting prospects in a couple of years.

Calloway Majette 5'6 G DC Top Flight (DC) - 6th Grade (2021)

Really nice feel for the game at such a young age...Lefty that knows how to put the ball on the floor very well off the dribble and not over penetrate. Smart touch and feel for the game. Takes what the defense gives him. Will penetrate all the way to the basket for easy layups if there and knows how to pull up for the nice jump shots and avoids contact or over-penetrating.

Malik Missouri, 5'11, G/F, Baltimore's Finest (MD) – 6th Grade (2021)

Combo forward, spot up 3 point range, uses good dribble moves to drive the ball to the rim, good passer from high post, finishes in traffic, active rebounder, tough defender.

Julio Montes, 5'2, PG, Game Time – 6th Grade (2021)

Tough heady little play maker, aggressive defender, handles, good vision, gets into the lane and finishes plays, 3 point range, very efficient player.

Damon Nicholas 5'6 G Nike Team Duke Pro Skills (TX) – 6th Grade (2021)

Smart basketball player; did a good job of always attacking and putting pressure on the defense. Nice size and feel for a young guard. Knocked down open shots and did a really good job of getting into the lane and creating easy scores; Rebounded the basketball well from the guard spot...Quick jumper which helped him to get to loose balls and rebounds.

Julian Nixon 6'1 F/C Xclusive X6 (GA) - 6th Grade (2021)

Very long armed post player that was a very capable low post defender and rebounder. Did a good job of rebounding the ball in the painted area and altered shots on the defensive end. Moved his feet well to get in good defensive position and help position to block and alter shots...Caught the ball well on the move in transition.

Jarius Northam 5'5 CG Carolina Elite (NC)- 6th Grade (2021)

Big time shooter from long range...Spots up very well and shoots the ball with good elevation, form, and release on his jump shot. Most teams know that he is a shooter so he does possess solid ball handling skills in which he will put the ball on the floor if driven off the perimeter. He puts the ball on the floor to create separation and space for his pull up jump shot.

Michael Onyeukwu, 6'1+, Oakland Soldiers (CA) – 6th Grade (2021)

combo forward, good skill set, faces up and can knock down the 12-15 footer, can go off the dribble to the rim and finish with either hand, quick off his feet, very active on the glass, good timing blocking shots, good defender.

Brandon Perez 5'9 G/F West Coast All-stars (CA) - 6th Grade (2021)

Smooth wing like player who handles the ball and can drive to basket off the dribble. Makes good basketball decisions with the ball and handles it well and shoots the 3 well off the dribble and catch...Made good decisions with the ball in transition and within the offense...Showed good signs of being a very capable defender on the next level as well.

Bobby Pettiford, 5'5, Carolina Elite (NC) – 6th Grade (2021)

Quick ball-handling guard, moves well without the ball to set up shot opportunities for himself, handles, knocks down the 3 pointer, tricky moves off the dribble to get to the rim, plays at his pace, doesn't press the action, sneaky rebounder from the guard spot, good offensive instincts.

Noah Rittinger, 5-4, PG, King James Shooting Stars (OH) – 6th Grade (2021)

Tough skilled lefty; good passer; sees the floor; Strokes the 3. Noah knows how to play.

Xavier Scott 5'5 G Wellington Wolves (FL) - 6th Grade (2021)

Active scorer who scores well off the bounce...Attacks well off the dribble and knocks down open pull up jumpers off the bounce.

Dimitrios Stragalinos, 6'0, G, Oakland Soldiers (CA) – 6th Grade (2021)

Athletic wing/perimeter player, handles, good floor vision, 3 point range, defends multiple positions, finishes with either hand in traffic, displayed a good feel for the game.

Steven Strong 5'4 PG Kansas Pray and Play (MO) - 6th Grade (2021)

Another young slick ball handler who really knows how to use the dribble to keep defenders at bay; Displayed a lot of slick and tricky one on one ball handling moves that helped him penetrate into the lane and get by defenders in transition for easy lay ups.

Danny Stubbs, 5-7, 140, PG, Atlanta Celtics (GA) – 6th Grade (2021)

Good-looking guard versatile; solid all-around guard skills...Handles; strokes the 3 and looked comfortable finishing in traffic.

Jordan Timmons, 5'9, 1/2G, Team Felton (SC) – 6th Grade (2021)

Scores the ball with ease, handles, aggressively attacks off the dribble, finishes with both hands in traffic, made good decisions with the ball in transition, defends, got a little out of control at times but his energy aggressive style of play was impressive.

Barry Wild G/F 5'6 Inland Force (CA)- 6th Grade (2021)

Good outside shooter who did a really good job of moving without the basketball and getting open for easy jump shot opportunities...Knocked down open 3's from long range with good form and elevation on his shot.

Robert Woodyard W 5'9 G King James Shooting Stars (OH) - 6th Grade (2021)

Solid basketball player with good length and feel for the game...Plays within himself and under control. Has a little edge to him and is not intimidated when on the floor...Attacks the basket well especially going to the left. He is a right-handed player but plays hard to the left and uses his length (long arms) to reach back to the right which is his strong hand for layups and finishes at the rim. Looks to attack the rim if you run out on him and chase him off the 3-point line...Knocked down open 3's all week from the outside.

Eric Williams 6'4 C New Orleans Elite (LA) – 6th Grade (2021)

Long armed, active post player with a good feel for the game. Did a really good job of rebounding the basketball on both ends...Smart kid who ran the pick and roll better than the guards. He would set the pick, roll to the basket for easy buckets off the pass. Did a really good job of catching the ball on the move and finishing the lay ups; Also slipped the pick a few times if defender tried to go over the top of the screen.

Zaakir Williamson 6'2 F Philly Triple Threat (PA) - 6th Grade (2021)

Physical post player with good hands and feet who works hard on both ends of the floor; Rebounded the ball very well on both ends and also did a really good job of working on the offensive end from the high post...Made good decision when ball was passed to him in the high post. Either passed out opposite to open man or faced up and made good low post moves to get easy shot for himself.

Joell Wilson, 5-7, 140, PG, Impact Athletics (OK) – 6th Grade (2021)

Solid all around guard skills; Strokes the deep 3. Nice form on jumper; This young man really know how to play the game.

SCOUTING REPORT

TOP 20 (13U) PLAYERS/PROSPECTS

1. Kendall Munson, 6-5, 190, F, Oakland Soldiers (CA) – 7th Grade (2020)

Kendall possesses everything you are looking for in a dominate player; Munson is comfortable playing all five positions with ease; Handles (Brings the ball up the court with ease); passes; strokes the perimeter jumper (range 15-17 feet), rebounded effectively on the offensive and defensive end. Dominated on both ends of the floor; Kendall has a smooth skill set, basketball IQ, pace of (SMOOTH) play and athleticism sets him apart from Brandon Ashley and Aaron Gordon at the same age. Kendall has an excellent feel for the game.

2. Jeremy Roach 5'10, SG, Team Melo (MD) – 7th Grade (2020)

Jeremy really has a great feel for the game; never seems to be in a hurry and understands how to make basketball plays with or without the ball in his hand. Has a really good looking jump shot and attacks off the dribble along the baseline very well/really good free throw shooter as well. Jeremy will be one of the most sought after guards in the Washington, DC area.

3. Robert "RJ" Davis, 5'9, PG, NY Gauchos (NY) – 7th Grade (2020)

Pretty good ball handler uses both hands to finish well around the basket & makes good decisions/playmaker; showed a nice midrange pull up jumper when he got into the lane and big man stepped up.

4. Josh Rubio, 6-5, C, Team Charlotte (NC) – 7th Grade (2020)

A load (220lbs) on the block because of his massive size and strength/good hands to catch passes in the lane and has developed a solid drop step over the left shoulder in the paint...Does a really good job of initiating contact with his man and then over powering him by finishing with either hand around the basket/really good agility for a player his size. / does a real good job of blocking shots from the weak side and in help defense

5. Isaiah Todd, 6-7, 180, F/C, Team Silk (MD) – 7th Grade (2020)

A good looking stallion; Plays the game with an edge and the competitiveness you are looking floor in a young potential front court player; Goes after everything on the defensive end of the floor; Cleans the glass; races down the floor and gets his share of layups; Also showed he could hit the turnaround jumper on the left and right baseline. Coachable young man who didn't want to come out of the game; Great kid; Mother is 6-5, they are in the process of moving from the city of Baltimore out to the county... Going to be interesting to see where this young man ends up in another year.

6. Xavier Vaughn Dusell, 6-2, 178, 2/1G, Oakland Soldiers (CA) – 7th Grade (2020)

Smooth big guard; impress with his ability to handle; score off the dribble or with the jump shot; has a tendency to over dribble and make his share of careless decisions with the ball on occasion. But there's no denying Xavier is one of the top players in the class of 2020.

7. Michael Saunders, 5'5, PG, George Hill Rising Stars (IN) – 7th Grade (2020)

Tough heady ball-handling guard; was by far one of the top players at the 13U tournament; did a great job of running the team and putting pressure on the opposing guard; The young man opposed his willed in every game; True floor general that knows how and when to turn it on and off. Young man game reminds us of a young Tyus Jones...Led the George Hill Rising Stars to the National Championship.

8. Caleb Jefferson, 5-8, G, Northern Kentucky Legends (KY) – 7th Grade (2020)

Very smart, crafty PG that knows how to play the game/makes plays for himself and others/gets into the lane to score or make drop off pass for the score/knocks down deep 3s with a really good shooting stroke/very poised and plays under control; A leader!

9. Jalen Nesmith, 5-8, PG, Wiz Kids (NY) – 7th Grader (2020)

Smooth lefty PG; Plays with the flair of the old throwback New York guards; tricky ball handler; showed off his range on his jump shots by knocking down the deep 3; used his quickness to get in the lane; finish and drop off fancy passes in traffic.

10. Tyler Alexander, 6-4, 195, F/C, Team United (NC) – 7th Grade (2020)

A talented young versatile big; comfortable handling the ball coast to coast; finishing with either hand; scoring with his back to the basket and stepping out and hitting the 15 foot jumper; One encouraging aspect of Tyler's game is that if he doesn't grow anymore the young man still shows great potential as a big guard; Runs the floor extremely well.

11. Dedrick Givens, 6'4, F, Team Charlotte (NC) – 7th Grade (2020)

Athletic, wing skills, scores with the dribble or mid-range jumper, can step out to the 3 point line, solid defender, solid handle, good passer from the high post.

12. Paul Smith II, 6-6, 190, F, Team Maryland Elite (MD) – 7th Grade (2020)

Intriguing young agile big who runs on his toes; Played like a big didn't mind going down low and scoring with his back to the basket; showed a nice touch from 12-15 feet; Footwork was really impressive in traffic. Attacks the rim and gets to the line where he shows a good-looking follow thru and a soft touch; showed his solid Basketball IQ by flashing to the elbow and knocking down the 15-foot jumper. And showed he could pass out of the double team and cut to the basket for easy lay-ups. Lively legs showed good timing blocking shots and hitting the boards. Paul has the potential to be one of the top players in the DMV (Princes Georges) region as well as the nation.

13. Justin Lewis, 6'3, WF, Baltimore's Finest(MD) – 7th Grade (2020)

Athletic wing very talented performer; handles and distributes in transition, finishes in traffic, can create his own shot with the dribble, knocks down the mid-range jumper, can be a volume rebounder when motivated.

14. Brent Royal, 6-2, 165, 2/1G, Nola-23 (LA) – 7th Grade (2020)

Good looking big guard; tricky ball-handler; scored using his size and length to post and shoot over the smaller guards and uses his quickness and ball-handling to get by the big guys who tried to guard him; Showed good court vision and ability to finish in the lane.

15. Kimani Holt, 6'2, F, San Diego Select (CA) – 7th Grade (2020)

16. Trey Galloway, 5'9, SG, George Hill Rising Stars (IN) – 7th Grade (2020)

Nice size young guard; really understands how to play the game; Deadly long-ball shooter off the dribble and off the catch; Did a really good job of putting the ball on the floor and driving to the basket when defender closed out hard to take away his jump shot. Used his body well when attacking the basket and finishing well with either hand around the basket.

17. Kerwin Walton, 6'0, F/G, F.A.B(MN) - 7th Grade (Class of 2020)

Young man had one of the prettiest jumps shot all week. Long lean frame and he seems to be very comfortable handling the ball and making decisions/really good playmaker with a very high basketball IQ for a 13-yrs old.

18. Thomas Notarainni, 6'1, 2/1G, San Diego Select (CA) - 7th Grade (2020)

Good looking size for a young combo guard; handles, good vision, finishes at the rim, good athlete with size, fundamentally sound, plays with toughness, 3 point range, hits the mid-range pull up.

19. Rashad McDaniels 5'8 G, St. Louis B-Mac Bounce(MO) – 7th Grade (2020)

Tough kid to guard when he has the ball in his hand/ scores in so many different ways from all levels on the floor/very good first step that helps him use his dribble to get pass initial defender.

20. Tommy Anderson, 5-8, PG, WCAS (CA) – 7th Grade (2020)

Very poised and has a really good feel for the game/ plays at a controlled pace at all times and keeps his team under control by setting tempo and pace/one of the strongest guards I've seen so far at this age group./attacks the basket and defender off the dribble with the left and right hand/finishes layups with both hands/seems to always be having fun on the floor.

21. Robert "RJ" Beasley, 6'1, F, Oakland Solider (CA) – 7th Grade (2020)

Has a really nice shooting stroke with high release/ runs the floor and looks to knock down shots as ball is rotated around the perimeter.

22. Lamontay Daughtry, 6-5, F, Team Manimal (IL) – 7th Grade (2020)

Very athletic, quick end to end, rebounds in traffic, Blocks shots, finishes in transition, scores with quick moves and athleticism in the paint, long armed defender, solid handle, high/ low skills, face up 12-15 feet.

23. Brevin Jefferson, 5'6, G, George Hill Rising Stars (IN) – 7th Grade (2020)

Fundamentally sound all-around guard; comfortable playing either guard position; Showed he could hit the perimeter (15-17) jumper consistently.

24. Tristan Maxwell, 6-0, SG, Team Charlotte (NC) – 7th Grade (2020)

The son of former NBA player Vernon Maxwell...Plays with a lot of swag and passion on both ends of the floor/strong on ball defender who harasses opposing ball handlers constantly up the floor/really good looking shooting form and touch from long range/punishes opposition if they go under the screen and roll, he pulls it from deep/really good passer at the age; keeps his head up on his dribble and knows how to get in the lane off the dribble for easy buckets

25. Chris "CJ" Johnson, 5-10, 1/2G, NY Gauchos (NY) – 7th Grade (2020)

Good size and solid basketball IQ. Has a knack for getting into the lane off the dribble and does a good job of using his body and strength to overpower smaller guards.

SCOUTING REPORT

TOP 25 (14U) PLAYERS/PROSPECTS

1. Wendell More, 6'5, Team CP3 (NC) – 8th Grade (2019)

Athletic wing, potential 3 position player at the HS level, handles, distributes, scores off the dribble, solid midrange skills, high level defender, excels in transition, solid floor vision, consistent Jump shot away from being really special.

2. Ernest Johnson, 5'7, PG, City Stars (CA) – 8th Grade (2019)

Super skilled point guard, quite possibly the best young floor general I have seen in quite a while. This kid has great body control when attacking the defense and drops dimes in rhythm, an elite level on the ball defender, finishes at the rim by absorbing the contact with his strong frame and finishing with either hand, can knock down open shots.

3. Jason Harris, 6'6, F, City Stars (CA) 7th Grade (2020)

Scores by using a variety of skills from the high or low post, knocks down the face up jump shot out to 3 point range, solid shot blocker, very quick end to end, solid one on one handle, needs to get stronger to consistently finish in traffic and not yet a volume rebounder but has the potential to improve both these areas of his game.

4. Jordan Brown, 5'6, PG, Game Elite (GA) – 8th Grade (2019)

Great handle in transition and the half court situation, great floor vision, tough moves off the dribble, finishes at the rim with both-hands, great on the ball defender, this kid has a great feel for the game and knocks down the jump shot with DEEP 3 point range.

5. Bryce Wills, 6'2+, 1/2G, New Heights (NY) – 8th Grade (2019)

Extremely skilled combo guard, scores easily off the dribble, can knock down the midrange pull up and has 3 point range, long armed defender, and active on the glass from the guard position, plays with a lot of poise, has a chance to be really good.

6. Garrett Anderson, 5'9, G/F, SF Thunder (FL) – 8th Grade (2019)

Really skilled offensive player, has a very high basketball IQ, scores the ball with ease off the dribble or by setting up the midrange jumper off the dribble, deep 3 point range, good floor vision, displays solid floor vision, and is a capable defender.

7. Romeo Weems, 6-5, F, The Family (MI) – 8th Grade (2019)

A major league talent; was a man among boys at the event; has the size and strength to be a problem inside/outside. Romeo has the potential to be a major force and a player to keep an eye on in the next two years.

8. Kobe Langley, 6-1, 155, 1/2G, Team CP3 (NC) – 8th Grade (2019)

Athletic lefty combo showed in the championship game against the talented City Stars teams that he is one of the top guards in the class of 2019. Showed he dominate the game passing or scoring the ball driving or stroking the 3pt jumper.

9. Deion Jackson, 6-2, 160, SG, Meanstreets (IL) – 8th Grade (2019)

Nice size guard; at his best getting to the basket but looked comfortable knocking down the 15-17 foot jumper; Nice follow thru jumper.

10. Jalen Thomas, 6-7, 190, F/C, The Family (MI) - 8th Grade (2019)

Developing big guys; I truly believe his best days are ahead of him; Jalen has the size, length, and athleticism to be a force once he gets stronger. It's going to be fun watching him compete on the national level for the next three years.

11. Raquan Brown, 6-0, PG, Team Charlotte (NC) – 8th Grade (2019)

Skilled PG; Possesses set to be a major league PG on the high school level; ball distributor and 3pt shooter.

12. Jashua Nickleberry, 6-3, SG, Team Loaded (VA) – 8th Grade (2019)

Good looking big guard; possesses the size and ability to be a one of the top two-guards in the state of Virginia.

13. Myles Baker, 6-1, SG, Meanstreets (IL) – 8th Grade (2019)

Solid quick wing; slashes to the basket; possesses long arms to play the passing lanes on the defensive end of the floor; quick open court scorer; aggressive all-around offensive player who is comfortable hitting the perimeter jumper or finishing around the basket.

14. Wesley Kraker (W), 5-4, PG, Let It Fly (TN) – 8th Grade (2019)

Tough and Poised ball handler...crafty ball handler who knows how to the play the PG position; a coach on the floor; Major league competitor.

15. Judson Arthur Martindale (W), 6-2, WF/G, BABC (MA) – 8th Grade (2019)

Good looking perimeter jump shooter; Hits the spot up jumper; off the dribble and coming off curls; Athletic leaper.

16. Taeyon Nelson, 6-7, PF/C, Meanstreets (IL) – 8th Grade (2019)

Solid interior big; Runs the floor; gets to the line; shows a nice looking stroke on his free-throw shooting; Tough interior big who protects the rim at a high level.

17. Demarr McRae, 6-1, 2/1G, Team Richmond (VA) – 8th Grade (2019)

One of the better-looking combo guards, I watched at the 14's. Showed he could score or distribute the ball at a high level.
