Welcome from the President Henry Forrest President/CEO

The city of Orlando and the Orlando Marriott World Center has so many things to offer visitors, whether it is swimming at the newly renovated pool, visiting theme parks, golfing, shopping at the nearby outlet malls, eating at great restaurants or just spending time relaxing at the beautiful hotel. I hope that you will take the opportunity to explore and revel in all the hotel has to offer and central Florida!

The Welcome Reception is scheduled for Thursday evening from 6:30pm to 8:00pm in the Falls Function Lawn at the Orlando Marriott World Center. We are pleased this year to have two phenomenal speakers. Judge Marion Humphrey will speak at our breakfast on Thursday, October 10th from 8:00am to 9:00am at the Falls Function Lawn (near the pool) and Dr. Todd Maugans from Nemours Children Hospital will speak regarding concussions. We hope you will join us for both dynamic speakers. Also, do not forget to make time to attend one of our exciting education sessions on Saturday, October 12th.

Please visit with our exhibitors and spend time learning about them, their information and products to enhance the AAU experience. It is always a pleasure to view the latest merchandise and equipment available to the AAU family. Many wonderful cities are willing and eager to host events for our athletes and will be there exhibiting. Be sure to visit them to hear their objective and see where the fit is for your AAU program or event. Let's give

"The Meeting You Don't Want to Miss"

Every meeting at the 2013 AAU Leadership Conference is important, but this is one meeting you definitely won't want to miss! So much so that we've named it that! "The Meeting You Don't Want to Miss" takes place on Thursday, October 10th from 1:45PM until 4PM in the Sawgrass conference room.

The AAU is encouraging everyone to come as this meeting will be full of very valuable information, including but definitely not limited to news and numbers from registration and the "Ready, Set, Protect" campaign from First Advantage (formerly Lexis Nexis). You will also get a chance to meet the Insurance Office of America, or IOA, and stay current with news from Compliance.

So carve out some time in your schedule on Thursday, October 10th from 1:45PM until 4PM because this is "The Meeting You Don't Want to Miss!"

Keynote Speaker

Retired Circuit Court Judge Marion Humphrey

Marion A. Humphrey is the pastor of Allison Presbyterian Church in Little Rock, Arkansas, and is a retired circuit court judge for Pulaski and Perry counties.

Humphrey was elected to the position of circuit judge in 1992, and served from January 1, 1993, until December 31, 2010. He was a Little Rock municipal judge from 1989 to 1992. Prior to serving as municipal judge, Judge Humphrey was in private practice in Little Rock and Pine Bluff. He also served as a Little Rock Assistant City Attorney, an Arkansas Assistant Attorney General, the Arkansas State Director for Prison Fellowship, and the associate minister of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in Roxbury (Boston), Massachusetts. He was a newspaper reporter and copy editor for the Pine Bluff Commercial. He served as a research assistant in the office of former Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm of New York, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and as an intern in the office of former Senator J. William Fulbright of Arkansas, U. S. Senate, Washington, D. C.

Humphrey is a member of the Arkansas Judicial Council, the Arkansas Bar Association, the Pulaski County Bar Association, the National Bar Association, and the W. Harold Flowers Law Society. He serves on the board of Arkansas Children's Hospital, Johnson C. Smith Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia, and the Vera Lloyd Presbyterian Home in Monticello. He was formerly a member of the Board of Directors at Lyon College at Batesville and of the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta. He is also affiliated with the Christian Ministerial Alliance and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He serves as chaplain of the Judicial Council of the National Bar Association. In addition, Humphrey is a member of the Arkansas Supreme Court Committee on Criminal Practice.
