

Article III. Other Matters

- III.A. AAU Taekwondo Team Trials Competition shall be conducted using round robin format.
- III.B. The AAU Taekwondo Program shall have the option of not accepting any Team Member whose position was garnered as a result of a lack of competition in their respective weight class. Such winner's may be required to audition their proficiency before a panel chosen by the National Head Coach.

Article IV. Responsibility of AAU Taekwondo Team Members

- IV.A. Those chosen to represent the AAU Taekwondo Program as current Team Members shall bear additional responsibilities to the AAU Taekwondo Program and these responsibilities shall be outlined and agreed upon by perspective Team Members prior to participation in the Team Trial process.

Guidelines for Officials Decisions, Protest Procedures and Competition Proceedings

Article I. Officials' Decisions

Official decisions made during and at the end of the contest are not negotiable. Any intent to protest must be made by the coach (not contestant) immediately following the match (refer to the protest paragraph in both Point and Olympic-Style sparring sections.) to ensure that tournament officials preserve all necessary records. Subsequently, the dispute shall be decided by the Tournament arbiter(s) in consultation with the Team Leader. The arbiter(s) may also call upon the Referee and/or Judges, in order to settle the dispute.

Article II. Competition Proceedings

- II.A. All officials, coaches and contestants participating in a sanctioned tournament are required to observe the decorum code of the AAU and the rules of the tournament.
- II.B. All contestants, coaches, and officials are required to be registered with the AAU during the year of the competition.
- II.C. If the Referee requests a time-out during a match, the time shall not be included in the calculation of the total match time.
- II.D. Any contestant who wishes to leave the ring area during his/her division must request permission from the Referee.
- I E During a match, coaches are required to remain seated and are not allowed to move about the perimeter of the ring. The coach may never enter the ring with the exception of filing a protest. When doing so, he is allowed to take one step only into the ring and announce to the Referee, "I wish to protest this match."
- II.F. Coaches MUST be in their proper chairs PRIOR to the beginning of a match and are required to remain seated. Coaches may NOT come into a chair once the match has begun unless approved by the Referee. Once the match has begun, the request to sit in the coach's chair can only take place between rounds. Coaches may NOT switch out during a match. A coach is NOT mandatory for competition. However, if an athlete does not have a coach, no protests will be allowed.
