 - i. Individual tournaments – Brackets will be used when there are six (6) or more. If there are only 5 or less wrestlers, the round robin system of “one against the other” is applied.
 - ii. All National tournaments will be run using the number system.
 - iii. Brackets will not be repaired due to no shows unless it creates a double bye. Wrestler will receive a bye.
 - c. Modification of Pairings
 - i. If a wrestler is forced to withdraw from the tournament because of an injury, illness, or a reason approved by the Tournament Committee, he must officially withdraw in writing.
 - ii. If a pairing mistake is made when pairing wrestlers, the following method should be used for correction:
 1. Stop the round involved if possible and correct it.
 2. If the round has already been wrestled, hold those bout sheets.
 3. Correct the round and wrestle those matches indicated.
 4. As wrestling continues, if a bout from the incorrect pairing appears, that bout will be used. There is no need to re-wrestle the same bout.
 - d. Recording
 - i. In each round, the pairings and the results of each bout are recorded on a master pairing sheet. A wall pairing sheet shall also be posted for the competitors so they may be informed about the result of their matches and the next round of pairings. An order of bouts shall be posted for the competitors.
 - ii. In international competition the color of the uniform is determined by the wrestler in the bracket. The top wrestler in the bracket is red.
 - iii. Note - It is possible that one may wrestle the same person twice.
 - e. Disqualification
 - i. DISQUALIFICATION from a bout does not mean disqualification from the entire tournament, unless the mat official clearly states that. If the bout sheet is unclear, check before pairing the next round.
