

II. SPORT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

- A. Sportsmanship. It is the obligation of coaches, players, administrators, volunteers and other representatives of the AAU to practice the highest principles of sportsmanship and to observe the ethics of competition. Good sportsmanship is defined as qualities of behavior, which are characterized by courtesy and genuine concern for others. The display of good sportsmanship is a statement of the individual's understanding and commitment to fair play, ethical behavior and integrity.
- B. Program Violations. Disciplinary action may be considered by the Districts, Sport Committee or the Executive Committee for any violations bringing discredit upon the AAU or any violation of any part of this Handbook or the AAU Code. In instances of alleged violations, Board of Review action may be taken against athletes, coaches, parents and/or clubs according to AAU Code. (Updated 10/12)
- C. No Guarantee Policy. The AAU can not and does not guarantee the appearance and/or participation of specific participant(s) and/or teams (as applicable) in this event. The AAU has sanctioned (approved) this Event as an official AAU Event (competition), but the AAU is not and shall not be responsible for any participant's or spectator's expenses related to this Event (nor reimbursements for same) in case of dissatisfaction of any participant, friend, family, or spectator, this includes, but is not limited to all travel, hotel (lodging), food, entry fees and/or any other expenses related to the event.

c. Rules and Restrictions. The National Championship is conducted under the AAU Code, AAU Volleyball Handbook and the current playing rules of USA Volleyball, as modified by the AAU National Executive Committee. For the current USA Volleyball Domestic Competition Regulations, visit www.usavolleyball.org.

- i. Rally scoring will be used. Each non-deciding set will be won by the team that first scores 25 points with a minimum two-point advantage (no scoring cap). If there is a deciding set, it will be won by the team that first scores 15 points with a minimum two-point advantage (no scoring cap).
- ii. 12 substitutions and Libero player(s). Substitutions are only recognized when the sub enters the zone. There is no longer a request from the coach or captain (Added 12/09).
- iii. Libero player(s) (Updated 2/12)
 - (a) Each team can designate up to two Liberos. Libero(s) must be identified prior to each set.
 - (b) Only one Libero may be on the court at a time.
 - (c) The Libero player(s) may serve in one rotation in a set.
 - a. If one Libero per set is used, the libero already on the court (rotating to the front row) may

- move to position 1 (right back) to serve without being required to leave the court for one completed rally. In this case the player that the Libero had previously replaced must replace her on the court. A Libero who has served in one rotation may not serve in another.
- b. If two Liberos per set is being used, the acting Libero rotating to the front row may move to the position 1 and serve without being required to leave the court. In addition, the acting Libero may come off the court at the same time that the second Libero moved into position 1 to serve. This double Libero replacement is only allowed for serving purposes.
 - (d) The libero CAN be team captain, game captain or both (Updated 10/15)
 - (e) For additional explanation on the Libero players, refer to Appendix F.
- iv. Centerline and Net Touch Rules (Added 12/09)
- (a) Encroachment into the opponent's court with any part(s) of the body is permitted, provided some part of the body remains either in contact with or directly above the centerline, and there is no interference with opponents. Completely crossing the centerline with the foot, feet, or hands, or encroachment with other body parts must not present a safety hazard to opponents. (Updated 9/14)
 - (b) Contact with the net by a player between the antennae, during the action of playing the ball, is a fault. The action of playing the ball includes (among others) take-off, hit (or attempt) and landing. (Updated 10/15)
 - (c) Players may touch the post, ropes or any other object outside the antenna, including the net itself, provided that it does not interfere with play.
 - (d) A player interferes with play by (amongst others) touching the net between the antennae or the antenna itself during action of playing the ball, using the net between the antennae as a support or stabilizing aid, creating an unfair advantage over the opponent by touching the net, making actions which hinder an opponent's legitimate attempt to play the ball, or catching/holding onto the net. Players close to the ball as it is played, or who are trying to play it, are considered in the action of playing the ball, even if not contact is made with the ball. However, touching the net outside the antenna is not be considered a fault. (Updated 10/15)

- v. When one team has exclusive use of the court, the other team must be either at its team bench or out of the playing area. Warming up with balls at the team bench or in the spectator walkways is not permitted (Added 12/09).
- vi. The 10 & Under division will be allowed to step into the court when serving. The step-in line will be 6'6" from the serving line.
- vii. Teams may register for only one division in the AAU Junior National Volleyball Championship.
