

Alex Murillo, Utah

Received his BS degree from Brigham Young University, Hawaii and earned his MBA two years later. Selected as host organizer for the NAIA National Women's Volleyball Championships in 1989 at BYU-Hawaii. Brought the USA Dance (formerly USABDA) National Ballroom Championships to Salt Lake City, Utah in the year 2000. Will be the Dance Director for this year's AAU National DanceSport Championships at Utah Valley State College in Orem, Utah. For the past 12 years, Alex has been the host organizer for the Utah DanceSport Championships held in February.

He currently is President of an investment company with a multimillion asset based portfolio. He also serves as President and CEO of the prestigious CenterStage Performing Arts Studios, the largest of it's kind in Utah, where it has produced many students who have starred in TV, movie and media appearances.

He has been honored with numerous awards for his community service and also has appeared in several TV and movie productions. He currently resides in Utah and is married to Robin (Bateman). They have seven children.