

about Norfolk

Let the games begin! As the AAU Junior Olympic Games returns to Hampton Roads with more exciting events for athletes from around the nation, Norfolk is poised to provide participants and their families with fun-filled experiences from start to finish. Norfolk's diverse attractions, rich history and modern appeal, make the city a gold medal winner among visitors.

A dynamic and fun waterfront destination, Norfolk's compact downtown offers visitors a multitude of entertainment complexes showcasing Broadway and theater productions, independent films, collegiate sports and rock performances. There are also a variety of eateries and shopping opportunities that the upscale MacArthur Center, Waterside Festival Marketplace and along Norfolk's Granby Street.

Family fun abounds in Norfolk with interactive science exhibits and military splendor at The National Maritime Center complex. Live demonstrations and hi-definition films are available at Nauticus or visitors can tour the decks of the USS Wisconsin, the largest battleship ever built. Catch a game and the sunset at Harbor Park baseball stadium. If adventure is what you seek then the Virginia Zoo's Okavanga Delta exhibit will simulate the feel of an African safari. Still not exhausted? Take it easy and stroll through the 155 glorious acres of the Norfolk Botanical Garden or the Tiffany glass exhibit at the nationally-acclaimed Chrysler Museum of Art.

Come enjoy the new Norfolk. We are honored to have you here.

For more information about Norfolk please visit www.visitnorfolktoday.com

